The World of Triathlon Meets in Gdańsk

Ladies and Gentlemen, there are few sports as exciting and spectacular as triathlon. Running, cycling, and swimming are a true magnet attracting the attention of fans, who appear in increasingly larger numbers every year at LOTTO Challenge Gdańsk powered by PGE. I am certain it will be no different this year.

The presence of Totalizator Sportowy, owner of the LOTTO brand, at Challenge Gdańsk has already become a tradition. After all, we are meeting here for the sixth time. Most importantly, each time we gather a mass of positive experiences. We have everything such an event needs – from the presence of the elite athletes from various corners of the world to exemplary organization. One can boldly say that LOTTO Challenge Gdańsk powered by PGE has become the sporting showcase of Gdańsk.

In conclusion, I wish all participants to break their personal records, and the fans great sporting emotions! See you in Gdańsk!

Do zobaczenia w Gdańsku!

THE CHAMPIONSHIP SAMORÍN-SLOVAKIA

ALL RACES ARE QUALIFICATION RACES FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP

#EveryAthleteEveryChallenge #HeartOfTriathlon • www.challenge-family.com

GDAŃSK

Dear Athletes

Welcome to Gdańsk for the 6th edition of the LOTTO Challenge Gdańsk powered by PGE.

Triathlon is a unique challenge. It combines three disciplines that require not only physical preparation but also determination, consistency, and the ability to overcome one's own limits. Everyone who stands at the start of a triathlon race is already a winner of the many months of work that brought them to this point.

We are especially pleased that this year's старт lists include nearly 1,000 athletes from 14 countries, and a record number of almost 600 participants will take on the middle distance. This is clear evidence that Gdańsk has become an important point on the triathlon map of Europe.

I wish you safe races, satisfaction with your results, and joy from competing in the unique scenery of our city. May this weekend be a celebration of sport, perseverance, and positive energy.

Aleksandra Dulkiewicz
Mayor of Gdańsk

Dear Athletes

We are delighted to be back in Poland with you and celebrating another Challenge Gdańsk!

It's wonderful to see so many athletes lining up to enjoy this spectacular course, testament to the dedication and commitment of the local team and community. So, thank you for travelling, whether from near or far, to experience this internationally renowned event.

Thank you also for your trust in Challenge Family. And I express my thanks to Mayor Aleksandra Dulkiewicz, Kamil Koniuszewski and Adam Greczyło and the rest of the team who have all worked so hard to bring this race to you. And special thanks must go to the countless volunteers, local stakeholders, sponsors as well as the local community for their continued support.

Challenge Family is committed to delivering inclusive and welcoming events around the world. This is especially so here in Gdańsk with not only a full triathlon programme, but a host of community events for all ages and abilities. The exceptional Polish hospitality, the stunning course and unique setting all combine to create an unforgettable weekend of sport for all.

I wish you all the very best for your race and see you at the finish line!

Jort Vlam
CEO Challenge Family

Welcome to the start line!

Ahead of us is another, already the sixth edition of LOTTO Challenge Gdańsk powered by PGE. Standing at the threshold of this year's race, I feel that our Gdańsk triathlon celebration is reaching a new level. It is no longer just a competition, but also a community that we are building together in the Tri-City. The energy that has been with us since the first edition is not fading – in fact, it grows stronger each year, with more and more athletes joining us at the start.

It gives me great satisfaction to see how the Gdańsk course has become a must-have event in many of your calendars. Your passion and determination drive us to continuously raise the bar. I would like to emphasize that the success of this event is the result of strong synergy. I extend my thanks to the Gdańsk Sports Centre team and to Mr. Kamil Koniuszewski for a partnership that allows us to deliver an event of international standard.

This year, once again, we prove that Gdańsk is the capital of triathlon excitement. Our membership in the Challenge Family is not only a guarantee of quality for you, but also a real pathway for sporting achievement. We continue the qualification system for The Championship, opening the door for top athletes to compete at the world level in Šamorín. Every slot earned in Gdańsk is proof of the hard work you have put in over months of preparation.

I would also like to address our invaluable volunteers – you are the silent heroes of this event. Your support on the course, at aid stations, and at the finish line creates the unique atmosphere of these races. Please remember them as you pass by – every kind word and high five means a great deal.

After months of preparation, the moment has come to push beyond your limits and experience the great satisfaction waiting at the finish line. May your emotions carry you all the way to the finish without any complications on the course, and may the cheering crowds give you even more strength.

See you soon—we will meet at the finish line!

Five places worth seeing in Gdańsk!

Gdańsk is a unique city. A city with over 1,000 years of rich history. At the same time, the numerous guests who come here every year emphasize the unique character of Gdańsk - there is a special atmosphere here, which additionally proves the uniqueness of the city.

We present you with our subjective list of five places worth seeing during your stay in Gdańsk.

Royal Road

The most frequently visited place, which is not difficult to get to, is the Royal Road, or the Royal Tract. It was once the most representative road in Gdańsk - the triumphal processions of Polish kings, distinguished guests visiting the city, as well as military parades and others passed through it. The Royal Road stretches from the Upland Gate and the gatehouse complex, through Długa Street and goes to Długi Targ, which is one of the most beautiful squares of both contemporary and contemporary Europe.

The route also includes places such as the Uphagen House, the historic tenement houses of the Ferbers and Czirenbergs, the Lion Castle, the Gdańsk City Hall, the beautiful Neptune Fountain and the Artus Court, which is now a branch of the Gdańsk Museum. The last two parts are the Green Gate and the Żuławska Gate. The buildings located on the Royal Route are so interesting that we will describe them separately below. When walking around Gdańsk, it is worth knowing more - individual monuments are worth getting to know a little better!

Neptune's Fountain

When walking along the Royal Route, you will not miss the Neptune Fountain, whose presence should not come as a surprise. After all, Gdańsk and the sea have been connected since the beginning of time. In the place where the fountain stands today, there was initially a well, but the then mayor of Gdańsk, Bartłomiej Schachmann (we are talking about the first half of the 17th century) decided to change the poor well into something more representative. He succeeded brilliantly, because today the fountain is one of the symbols of Gdańsk, where tourists are happy to take photos - according to the Kashubians, anyone who comes to the city for the first time should kiss Neptune's... four letters.

Supposedly, it was Neptune, or rather his anger at tourists who threw coins into the fountain, that caused the creation of the famous Gdańsk liqueur - Goldwasser. The angry Neptune struck the fountain with his trident and smashed the coins into particles of gold, which we can see today in the aforementioned herbal liqueur.

European Solidarity Centre

The European Solidarity Centre was established to popularize the idea of the „Solidarity" movement and to present the social and political changes that took place in Central and Eastern Europe at the end of the 20th century. The European Solidarity Centre is located in the place where the shipyard used to operate dynamically. It was here that Lech Wałęsa worked, and became the head of the Independent Self-Governing Trade Union „Solidarity". In multimedia exhibitions we will learn about the history of the Polish People's Republic, we will see what the interrogation room and prison cell looked like, which the members of the Solidarity movement had to deal with.

Inside we will see the opposition printing house, the Round Table conference room, the shipyard workers' cloakroom, Jacek Kuroń's office - inside there are plenty of photographs, exhibits and archival materials. The very topic of strikes and social changes of that period is fascinating, although a bit difficult for children, which is why the Play Department was created especially for them, with mobile, interactive stations for learning and playing. Through multimedia exhibitions and educational games, children learn, among other things, how a ship is built, what route goods take from reloading in the port to setting sail, but also what the word „solidarity" means and why teamwork is so important and what it can lead to.

Westerplatte

Today, we associate the famous Gdańsk peninsula with the place of heroic battles of Polish soldiers in September 1939. It was here that World War II symbolically began and it is here that the history of that period is still alive today. When in Gdańsk, it is a must to visit the "Westerplatte" Tourist Trail, which acquaints visitors with the battlefield and the course of bloody battles with the German invader. The starting point is the passenger ship port - so you can sail here from the city center.

The next stations on the route are the bunker, the observation tower, the Fort, the Defenders' Cemetery, guardhouses, the ruins of the New Barracks and of course one of the most characteristic places on Westerplatte - the Monument to the Defenders of the Coast. Westerplatte can be visited independently or with a guide who passionately tells about the subsequent stages of the battles and defense of the Polish coast.

Oliwa Park

A great place for walks for both residents and tourists coming to Gdańsk for the weekend is Oliwa Park - the greenest part of the city. It consists of smaller parks - English, French, Japanese, lime alley and palm house. On the edge of the park there is the zoo described below. The park features a beautiful Abbots' Palace, flower carpets, finely trimmed bushes, interesting sculptures, water features, gazebos, bridges, cascades - all of this makes you feel like you're in paradise! The park also features Pachołek Hill, with a viewing tower from which you can admire the panorama of Gdańsk. On the edge of the Oliwa Park is the Oliwa Archcathedral, famous for its magnificent organs. Organ concerts are held there during the summer season, and if you have the chance, they're definitely worth a visit. If you want to take a break from the bustling city life, you can only do so in Oliwa Park!

Are You a Doctor? Report this when collecting your start pack

If you are a doctor, be sure to report it when collecting your start pack. In cooperation with the District Medical Chamber in Gdańsk and the Supreme Medical Chamber, during LOTTO Challenge Gdańsk powered by PGE we are running an additional classification of the Pomeranian Doctors' Championships.

To be included in this classification, it is enough to present your Doctor's License to Practice Medicine or provide the number of this license; after verification of the data, you will be added to the doctors' classification in your distance.

All people starting in the doctors' classification will receive an additional gift to their start pack prepared by the District Medical Chamber in Gdańsk.

RULES FOR DRIVING IN THE TUNNEL

- Travel is one-way, always in the left lane. Remember that vehicles may use the right lane, which is separated by U21 vertical signs.
- The entire tunnel route will be separated by U21 vertical signs. Do not move into the right lane, as vehicles may be traveling there.
- When entering and exiting the tunnel, be prepared for the lighting to change from daylight to artificial light and back again. Your eyes may need a moment to adjust.
- If you use a GPS watch, you will lose the GPS signal when entering the tunnel. The watch will regain it after you exit. Do not focus on adjusting your watch; keep your attention on the road.
- In the event of an accident in the tunnel, overtaking is prohibited. Be alert, slow down, and pay attention to the audio announcements made by the staff.
- Take care of your own safety and the safety of the other competitors.

Slots THE CHAMPIONSHIP 2027

CHALLENGE GDAŃSK is one of 37 races qualifying athletes for The Championship. In Gdańsk, a total of 72 slots are available for the 2026 edition of The Championship.

- One slot is awarded to each athlete finishing in the top six in a given age category for women and men in the CHALLENGE FAMILY middle distance; on the middle distance, this also applies to relay teams in women's, men's, and mixed categories.
- Slots are passed down to athletes in lower places, up to a maximum of 12th place in a given category, if athletes from places 1–6 already have slots.
- Each qualified athlete has 4 weeks after the race to confirm acceptance of their slot.
- Qualified athletes will receive their slot and all information by email to the address provided during registration.

Challenge Family slots for PRO athletes

Each PRO athlete in the top six will receive a qualifying slot for the CHALLENGE FAMILY Championship (6 slots in total).

Each PRO female athlete in the top six will receive a qualifying slot for the CHALLENGE FAMILY Championship (6 slots in total).

Slots are not passed down to athletes from lower places if the athletes in the top six already have slots.

Your path to Challenge Roth 2027

Challenge Gdańsk is one of the events during which you can secure a place on the starting list of the iconic Challenge Roth 2027 event. This year, we have 25 places on the Roth 2027 starting list.

Who can get a place on Challenge Roth 2027?

Any female and male athlete competing in the middle distance.

What do you need to do to get a place on Challenge Roth 2027?

Just finish the middle distance Challenge Gdańsk 2026 and fill out a survey in which you express your interest in getting a place on the Challenge Roth 2027 list. You can find the survey at: https://bit.ly/chroth2027.

According to what rules will the places on Challenge Roth 2027 be allocated?

The 25 places on Challenge Roth will be allocated proportionally. First, we will divide the 25 places as a percentage of the number of women and men interested in getting a place.

For example - if 35 women and 65 men express interest in receiving a place, then women will receive 35% of 25 places, i.e. 9 places, and men 16 places. Then the places for women will be divided proportionally in age categories, similarly in the case of men.

) if people who received a place for Challenge Roth 2026 from us a year ago will be included only at the end of the list*

How much does a place in Challenge Roth 2027 cost?

A place on the Challenge Roth start list costs EUR 899.

By when will information on the division of places for Challenge Roth 2027 be provided?

The division of places for Challenge Roth 2027 will be announced by July 5, 2026. Entry fee during registration.

By when should registration and payment for Challenge Roth 2027 be made?

Registration and payment must be made by August 15, 2026. It is not possible to extend this deadline. Unused registration codes will be lost.

Can I transfer my place to another person?

No, the places awarded are named places assigned to a given person. Only we have the ability to change personal data. In the event of registration of a person other than the one indicated by us, the registration will be canceled and the amount paid will be lost.
